“Flavors of Miami Lakes Passport”: A Budget-Friendly Culinary Tour of Miami Lakes

June 25, 2009

Miami Lakes, FL- The Economic Development Committee (EDC) of the Town of Miami Lakes is proud to present the summer dining program, “The Flavors of Miami Lakes Passport”, the first of its kind in Miami Lakes. The FREE month long promotion starts August 1st and features discounts and freebies at 15 participating local restaurants and lounges in Miami Lakes.

Pick up a “Flavors” passport at Town Hall, Don Shula’s Hotel, JetStream Credit Union, Coldwell Banker, or Crexent Business Center beginning in mid July. The passport will also be available at this weekend’s 4th of July Concert and Fireworks Extravaganza.

“It’s great,” says El Pimento’s Chef and Proprietor Mylo Gonzalez, whose restaurant is participating in the month long campaign. El Pimento has been serving up tasty tapas in Miami Lakes for over three years but, Gonzalez would love to see more locals try his Spanish cuisine. “You can have a piece of Spain right here in Miami Lakes at very affordable prices,” he stated.

Speaking about the dining discount program, Mayor Michael Pizzi said, “I think our Economic Development Committee is doing a great job of reaching out to the restaurants, a significant component of our local economic engine, to forge fruitful partnerships. This program satisfies the desires of patrons to eat delicious food at affordable prices and the restaurants and lounges stand to benefit by the potential to increase sales.” said Mayor Michael Pizzi.

The EDC’s Chairman Dr. Orlando Aguila and his committee members have been working for months with the restaurants to develop unbeatable dining and entertainment deals with the goal of increasing local and visitor awareness and traffic of local restaurants and lounges.

“This program is a win-win: budget conscious consumers get to dine on the cheap and restaurants have the opportunity develop first time clients into regular customers by giving them a “wow” experience. Use the “Flavors” passport to treat family and friends to quality food, beverages and excellent service without breaking the bank,” said Mayor Pizzi.
